

Handini in soft debut

Handini Resources made an inauspicious stock exchange debut yesterday, closing at 46¢ compared to its 50¢ listing price on another day of bourse-wide sell-offs. The Perth company raised $3.4 million ahead of its listing and also secured an offtake agreement with Indian trader Visa Comtrade, which has agreed to buy 14.4 million tonnes from Handini's thermal coal project in Indonesia.